The World Cup cricket match between India and Pakistan is going on right now. I should be watching it. What am I doing here? Did Rtapalli Vidyapitha make a mistake? Of course not. After all a cricket match is just entertainment. What I am doing now is far more important. I am helping myself to decide my future. I could become a scientist, or an engineer, a doctor, or maybe a poet. I can miss one match for something so important.
